The tournament has been held in California for the past 18 years. This year will mark the first time it's ever been held on the east coast, organizers said.

More than 30 countries will be represented at the July event.

The tournament is one of 11 Grand Prix Gold badminton tournaments worldwide, according to officials.

"A lot of money will be spent in the downtowns," Michael Grant with the Brentwood Chamber of Commerce said.

The tournament will be held from July 8 to 13, 2014. Tickets will cost $15 to $30 for adults and $10 to $15 for school age children.
