SCCC's McKay and Sanders honored

Suffolk County Community College President Shaun L. McKay and Theresa Sanders, chair of the board of trustees, were honored with others by Suffolk County Executive Steve Bellone and the Suffolk County Office of Minority Affairs as being among Suffolk's Most Prominent African American Leaders.

A photo exhibit featuring the honored leaders was unveiled and will be on display at the H. Lee Dennison building in Hauppauge this month as part of this year's Black History Month celebration.
