IT'S A WONDERFUL LIFE – A LIVE RADIO PLAY

Experience the Magic of the Holiday Classic — LIVE ON STAGE!

December 8th @ 6:00 PM
December 9th @ 12:30 & 6:00 PM and December 10th @ 6:00 PM

Step back in time and experience the heartwarming magic of It's a Wonderful Life as you've never experienced it before! Based on Frank Capra's beloved holiday classic adapted for the stage by Anthony Palermo, and directed by Professor Leslie Ippolito, this live radio play brings one of the most cherished stories to life in an exciting and nostalgic theatrical experience.

Join us in the town of Bedford Falls as we follow the journey of George Bailey, a man who has spent his life putting the needs of others before his own. When George finds himself facing his darkest hour, his guardian angel, Clarence Oddbody, arrives with a very special mission: to help George rediscover the true value of his life and, in the process, earn his wings.

Through the unique magic of live radio theatre, talented performers bring this timeless story to life with captivating character portrayals, expressive vocal performances, and authentic live sound effects created right before your eyes and ears. Watch as the world of old-time radio unfolds on stage, transporting you to another era and inviting you to become part of the magic.

Filled with laughter, heartfelt moments, and the spirit of the holiday season, It's a Wonderful Life reminds us that friendship, family, kindness, and community are the greatest gifts of all. It is a celebration of the extraordinary difference one ordinary person can make and a powerful reminder that every life touches countless others in ways we may never fully understand.

Whether this is your first time experiencing this beloved story or a chance to revisit an old favorite, this special production promises an unforgettable experience for audiences of all ages.
